

We've helped make the Toyota Grand Prix of Long Beach the premier event
of its kind in America.

We can do the same for you.

INTRODUCING....

GPALB
Special Events

Since the race's inception in 1975, GPALB Special Events has been responsible for the multi-dimensional operational aspects of the famed Toyota Grand Prix of Long Beach, universally recognized as the nation's premier street race.

GPALB Special Events has fenced in the race circuit to build a city within a city. Built grandstands and other structures for more than 200,000 race fans. Installed tents of all shapes and sizes for race teams and hospitality groups. And, cleaned up after them.

That same turnkey event expertise is now available to you.

Venue Services

...doesn't begin to describe our many capabilities.

From the seed of an idea to finished product, no Southern California company is better equipped to provide turnkey event services than GPALB Special Events, a division of the Grand Prix Association of Long Beach (GPALB).

Beginning with in-depth feasibility studies to development of operational plans to on-site management, GPALB Special Events delivers a worry-free environment that leaves you more time to concentrate on what's REALLY important: The success of your event.

As Southern California's complete event operations company, GPALB Special Events includes a staff of experienced employees available to guide a variety of events from blueprint to on-site operations. That includes a number of special tasks in between, such as:

- ┆ Event operation management logistics,
- ┆ Total/partial event fencing,
- ┆ Grandstand construction and take-down,
- ┆ Complete tenting services,
- ┆ Platforms and viewing stands,
- ┆ Temporary power distribution,
- ┆ Design of crowd control and traffic ingress/egress patterns and
- ┆ Event site and layout.

Ask about

...fast-lane marketing from start to finish.

The marketing, advertising and public relations arm of the GPALB is a virtual full-service agency specializing in ushering an idea or event from concept to “happening.”

The same proven marketing and promotional strategies that have vaulted the annual Toyota Grand Prix of Long Beach – and, by association, the City of Long Beach itself – to international prominence are now available to assist you in:

- acquiring and maintaining sponsorships,
- producing exposition and/or trade shows,
- managing corporate sales and hospitality,
- developing complete public relations and media relations programs and
- generating extensive graphics support and print and broadcast concepts, including brochures, press kits, advertising and more.
